One-of-a-Kind Imported Dresses

They can't be cheap—but they can be and are at dollars less than usual. Witness the Crepe Dresses—the draped one-piece and coat models at $20.00, $25.00, $27.50, and $35.00. Hurry for these shadow lace draped Dresses with triple flounces—at only $25.00. See this plain Net Dress with waist and flounces trimmed with bands of lace and black net—unique and only $32.50. See the $25.00 and $27.50 Point d'Esprit Dresses with fishu effect Waist and ribbon girdle. Take elevator to Third floor.

$5.00 and $10.00

Learn of these

It's bargain time for the shrewd store chief and his patrons. The Summer Season in the wholesale market ends almost with the opening in the retail stores—and thus it is "bargain time"—the time to secure samples and overlots at bargain prices.

Many prizes will be found tomorrow among the lots bunched and offered at $5.00 and $10.00.

PRIZES AT $5

At $5.00—plenty worth $10—are many coat dresses and one-piece dresses. The summer girl's "Dolly Varden" dresses, the nautical girl's linen coat dresses, every phase of dress for every phase of girl is here.

PRIZES AT $10

At $10—plenty worth $25—are models imported as inspirations. Hurry for the Eponge and Ratine models with lingerie collar and cuffs and velvet ribbon girdles.

And think of only $10 for these lace dresses with net foundation! Note their lovely satin girdles and sashes in American Beauty, light blue, pink, and white.

$3.98 $4.98

Today's Styles

The Waist pictured at $3.98 is the specialty stores' $5.00 Silk Waist. At $4.98 is pictured one of the many styles that are fac-similes of expensive imported Waists. The two illustrated below at $2.00 are Voile Waists.

Merely hints of today's styles—at $1.00, gradually to $25 are literally thousands of new Waists in hundreds of styles.

The Palais Royal is headquarters for the new Shadow Lace and Net Waists—with greatest variety and least prices.

Madam Maury Is Here

The Famous Corset Expert

"La Adria" is practically a French corset—made by the most famous importers of French Corsets. Made in this country, "La Adria" Corsets are not taxed with a "tariff" and therefore less costly than the imported.

Waists and Skirts--At $1.00

Regular patrons have seen vast quantities and wondrous values here at $1.00—but never such quantities and values as now. Quantities had to be taken—the makers were needing big sums of money in a lump sum. They got it—you get Waists better than in memory at $1.00, and last-moment High-waisted Bedford Cord Skirts at less than half the actual value.

To avoid overcrowding, tables will be filled on both first and third floors. Distribution beginning tomorrow morning promptly at 8:30.

$12.75 and $20

As Illustrated Here

At $12.75—the combination one-piece model pictured with full face view. The jacket of Ratine, in either Nell Rose, Copenhagen Blue, or English Tan. The white collar and cuffs with knife pleating. The vest of lace. White linen skirt and white kid belt.

A feature of these new dresses—they all seem to fit without needing any alteration. Slip into one—take elevator to third floor.

At $20.00—the Combination Suit pictured with side face view. This summer the "Combination" is to be much in evidence. The one pictured has coat of matelasse-Eponge, either of amber, Copenhagen or coral; the skirt is white. This coat suit, like many others here, are adaptations of imported garments costing $50, costing you only $20.

Also note—the coat can be bought separately in all colors, the price being $15.00.

The "Tango" Coat

At $15—The latest "Tango" Coat—here of both brocaded charmeuse and moire silks, in copper, coral, and taupe, with black velvet trimmings. Made to special order—an exact copy of the imported model costing $40 to land.

Why Order Your Hat Monday?

—Because the real milliner is an artist, with the artistic temperament. Inspired after Sunday's rest—her best work is created on Monday. Here—the milliner, the private parlor, and materials at less than usual prices.
